++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Remaining very cold, but becoming largely dry and clear.

This Evening and Tonight:
Snow showers will gradually ease through the evening, with most places becoming dry with clear skies after midnight. As winds fall light overnight temperatures will plummet bringing a severe frost, some icy stretches and patches of freezing fog. Minimum temperature -8 deg C (18 deg F).

Thursday:
A largely dry day with plenty of sunshine. However, it will be very cold with the odd snow shower across the far northeast during the afternoon and evening. Maximum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Remaining very cold throughout with strengthening southeasterly winds. Mainly dry and sunny on Friday and Saturday. Turning cloudier on Sunday with a risk of snow spreading eastwards.
